

PeaceParent

Calmer communication. Clearer schedules. Better co-parenting.

One private space for two parents: shared calendar, structured messages and Tone Guard, which checks the tone of every message before it is sent.

WHAT IT DOES

- One calendar on both phones, always the same.
- Schedule changes are requests with a yes or no.
- Tone Guard flags messages likely to escalate and suggests a calmer version.
- Decisions are proposed, agreed and kept in one place.
- Private and encrypted. No social feed, no public profile.
- Free to download. Parents set up their own space with an invite code.
